RIOT LESSON 2: RIOT

LEARNING INTENTIONS	SUCCESS CRITERIA
Students will: • Understand the RIOT goals and limitations. • Understand the expectations for students. • Know about locus of control and circle of control.	Students will be able to: • Explain the expectations teachers have of students. • Be able to identify internal locus of control and external locus of control thinking. • Complete a circle of control diagram.

EXERCISE 1 LOCUS OF CONTROL

Is each statement internal or external locus of control?

Statement	Internal (I)	External (E)
Our team lost because our defence wasn't strong enough. We need to work on this in training.	☐	☐
I got a B on my Science test because I reviewed the topic questions.	☐	☐
I only got a C for that assessment because Ms Sampson doesn't like me.	☐	☐
I didn't get into the basketball team because I'm unlucky.	☐	☐
I was selected for captain because I am committed and I treat all team members with respect.	☐	☐
I can't go on the excursion because Mr Cross wouldn't take my late permission slip.	☐	☐

EXERCISE 2 CIRCLE OF CONTROL

Complete the circle of control: things I can control, things I can't control.

Statement	Things I can control	Things I can't control
My effort	☐	☐
How I respond	☐	☐
Asking for help	☐	☐
The weather	☐	☐
Other people's opinions	☐	☐
The family I was born into	☐	☐

EXERCISE 3 MY CIRCLE OF CONTROL

There are numerous things that are beyond our control. But there are aspects of life we can take some control over. Recognising this means you can put your effort where you are most likely to have some effect.

Things in my life I can control:

Things in my life I can't control:

What does 'having a go' look like for me?
